KRAB and KBOO are non-commercial, free-forum stations. No Clearasil ads, used car shucks, pesticide spots, and consequently, NO MONEY. We survive solely through the contributions of our listeners, made through a subscription to the station. Subscribers receive, free of charge, a program guide, like this one, every two weeks. To receive your FREE program guide, you have to pay money. That's understandable, Isn't it? The money you have to pay is:
$20 for one year, OR, $12 for one year (poverty rate, and we tell the neighbors if you only send $12) or;
$6 for nine months, a student subscription. All contributions are TAX DEDUCTIBLE, even the six dollar shots. So send us MONEY, so our good works may continue.
